STUDIO 506 THEATER PRESENTS
WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S THE TEMPEST
June 22, 2019
*Directed by Kaitlyn Crockett

LOWELL, MA (April 22, 2019) -- Studio 506 Theater continues their 2019 season with a 90-minute cut of William Shakespeare's The Tempest, regarded as one of the last plays that William Shakespeare wrote. The play concerns an aging sorcerer who enacts revenge upon his enemies, realizes that "the rarer action is in virtue than in vengeance", and forgives those who wronged him. The play contains classic Shakespearian tropes including young lovers who thrive against the odds, political murder plots, and drunken fools. 506 is proud to partner with DIY Lowell for this outdoor, traveling one-night-only performance as part of their second annual A Midsummer's Dream Festival, located in Downtown Lowell. The play will be performed at a different park per act in this five act play: the first act will take place at St. Anne's Churchyard, the second at Lucy Larcom Park, the third at Market Street Park, the fourth at the Mary J. Bacigalupo Victorian Garden, and the final act back at Lucy Larcom Park.
